KEEPING ARRANGEMENTS

Applications are subject to information provided. To avoid delays in licensing process please ensure as much information as possible is provided.

In addition to this, applications to keep Protected Native Animals and Special Protection Status Animals (eg Category B and C reptiles, Black cockatoo species etc) are requested to submit an additional husbandry plan which outlines enclosures, requirements for keeping (temperatures, heat lamps, feeding requirements, enclosure furnishings, mats to be used etc) and procedures if health concerns arise. Please include diagrams, photos or supporting statements where deemed relevant.

Proposed keeping arrangements and feeding requirements:

Enclosure type and dimensions:
Furniture for enclosure: (eg water bowls, hide areas, basking sites, heat lamps)

Statement regarding previous experience and details from individual/business supporting these claims:

IMPORTANT CONDITIONS:

- General licence applicants should be at least 15 years of age. Applicants under that age should obtain the written consent of a parent or guardian who would be listed as the co-licence holder or they can nominate an adult family member (parent/guardian/older sibling) to hold the licence on their behalf. This ensures that the young applicant is recognised under the licensing system as gaining experience in support of future licence applications.
- Native animals and plants may only be obtained from legal sources (registered breeders and pet-shops). It is an offence to take native animals and plants from the wild or release native animals and plants to the wild without the written consent of the Conservator for Flora and Fauna.
- False or misleading information may incur a penalty under the Nature Conservation Act 1980.
- It is a condition of application that if deemed appropriate the Conservator of Flora and Fauna reserves the right to inspect keeping arrangements prior to licence being granted.
- The outcome of an application cannot be predicted and should not be anticipated. A licence must be held prior to undertaking the activity.

I certify that the above information is true and correct and provided in confidence:
