

MR564/0112

9 January 2012

FREE THEATRE WORKSHOPS FOR AGES 10-16 YEARS

Libraries ACT is hosting Ickle Pickle Productions during the holidays to run a series of free theatre workshops for children aged 10 – 16 years, which will lead to the production of an original theatre piece.

“Playwright Rachel Hogan will lead the 90 minute workshop which will cover everything from costumes and music to sets and script development,” Vanessa Little, Director, Libraries ACT said today.

“Participants will learn how a production is created while contributing story ideas, characters and names that will be incorporated into the final musical theatre performance.

“If you love a good story and believe in the power of imagination, this is a great opportunity to come out and learn more about musical theatre.

“Ickle Pickle Productions will also offer each participant a special deal to attend a musical theatre production by Ickle Pickle during 2012 – 2013, including a question and answer session with the cast and a backstage tour,” Ms Little said.

Bookings are essential for these free events and can be made by visiting www.library.act.gov.au or calling 6205 9000.

WHAT: Free theatre workshops for ages 10-16 years
WHEN: Thursday 12 January 2012 from 10.30 am to 12 pm at Erindale Library
Tuesday 17 January 2012 from 10.30 am to 12 pm at Dickson Library
Thursday 19 January 2012 from 10.30 am to 12 pm at Woden Library
REGISTRATION: Bookings are essential, visit www.library.act.gov.au or call 6205 9000

Statement Ends

Media contact: Kirsten Rae, 6205 2173