CHANGES TO PARKING ARRANGEMENTS IN WODEN

Territory and Municipal Services today reminded motorists of changes to parking arrangements in Woden commencing on Monday 26 November.

The temporary carpark at Phillip Oval will be closed from Monday 26 November to allow for the redevelopment of the Oval to commence.

Alternative parking in Irving Street in Phillip will be available from Monday. The Irving Street carpark will accommodate 170 parking spaces.

Signs advising motorists of new arrangements have been installed at car parks in Woden at Phillip Oval and the Hellenic Club and TAMS reminds motorists travelling to work next week to plan ahead to ensure sufficient time to adjust to the changes.

An additional 185 parking spaces will become available when Phillip Oval is reopened which is expected early in 2008.
