

MEDIA

release

Community Engagement Unit

Telephone 6205 3696

MR176/0507

25 May 2007

Issuing of Kangaroo Culling License

Acting Conservator of Flora and Fauna, Russell Watkinson, today announced that the approval for issuing licences for Department of Defence to shoot native wildlife will be delayed.

“The Australian Federal Police (AFP) have raised safety concerns,” said Mr Watkinson.

“Should Defence wish to proceed, the AFP, TAMS and Defence will need to work together to address those safety concerns,” said Mr Watkinson.

Further information: Yersheena Nichols, 0434 562 341